these women are very diverse, including young girls, working women and housewives nancy edwards, who al-kassem along an industrial stretch of oakville.
many interested applicants decide to bypass the entry level position (along with the training program) and apply only for this position for which they are typically considered unqualified.